

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. In the case of Sinclair's recent decision to air "Stolen Hour", I feel that they are not serving the public interest, rather they are using our airwaves to control and unfairly influence the upcoming election. I for one see that this is illegal and hope that you will look into this matter more closely.